Vienna, December 4.

N Express is arrived here from Ratisbon, dispatched by the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeits, but the Contents of his Dispatches are not yet divulged; it is observed nevertheles, that Baron Kirchner had lately a Conference with the Vice-Chancellour of the Empire; and 'tis faid that a Cabinet Council will shortly be held, in which the Emperour is to be present; from whence it is presumed most of those Conferences turn upon irs of Religion. Count Hohenfelt, great Steward to the Empress Dowager, is set out to Dresden, to felicitate on the part of the Imperial Family the Princels Royal on the Birth of her Son. The Au-ftrian States continue their Seffion with great Sucthe Emperour's Demands. Count Kinky has Count Kindky has given Orders for preparing his Equipage to let out for Petersbourg, but the time of his Departure is not yet fixed, The British Minister was Yesterday not yet fixed. The British Minister was Yesterday in Conference with those of this Court, touching the restoring the Duke of Holstein to his Dutchy. Some Persons imagine that Duke will accept of that Slefwick be determined in the enfuing Brunfwick Congress. It is reported the Duke of Holstein designs to go to Petershouse in order Dutchy provisionally only, till the Point concernie defigns to go to Petersbourg, in order to marry into the Czar's Family. It is likewife faid that the Czar shews some Symptoms of a Disposition to enter into a Negotiation of Peace with Sweden through the Emperour's Mediation.

Warfaw, Dec. 7. It is faid, that the Particulars of the Accommodation between the Crown General and Velt Mareschal Fleming are, That till the next General Diet the separate Command of the foreign Troops is to remain with General Fleming, dependently, nevertheles, upon the Crown General, who in the Velt Mareschal's Absence is to have the whole Command of the foreign Troops and others, and shall have the Privilege of advancing Officers to Vacancies, so that such among the Poles as have sufficient Qualities may possess. This Accommodation is said to be signed by the King 3 as likewise by the two Generals; and tis further said, that his Majesty, in Consideration of General Fleming's his Majesty, in Consideration of General Firming Compliance, has bestowed upon him the additional Command of a Company of Husser, which had been vacant by the Death of the Deputy of Sendomir. Circular Letters are preparing for a Convadity of General Diet of all the States of Poland and Lithuania; however, the dispatching of these Convaditions of the Convaditions o by a General Diet of all the States of Poland and Lithuania; however, the dispatching of those Circulars, and likewise the Meeting of the Grand, Diet, are yet both uncertain, because Advices are received that several Parties of Nobility are forming in some of the Palatinates. The most part of the Senators who composed the last General Diet are returned home, and the King intends to set out shortly for Dresden. The Muscovite Ambassadour having notified, that the Coar has given Orders for setting at Liberty the Polish Prisoners, with the Artillery detained by his Order, and consents likewise to a Regulation of the Ukranian Limits; the King of Poland has therefore appointed Commissions to those Purposes, who are to be surpsished faring or rotand has therefore appointed commit-faring to those Purposes, who are to be furnished with Money for supporting the necessary Charges attending the execution of their Commission. The freshest Advices from the Polish Russis, confirm ts of the Plague abating more and more Heidelberg, Dec. 15. Our Elector continues still at Manheim, and has given Orders for redressing within a Month hence, all the Protestants Grievances; but it is feared those Orders will be but indifferently executed, by what appears from the daily Infults and Abufes from the Priefts and their daily Insults and Abuses from the Priests and their Agents, upon the Ministers, and such of the Protestants who have published Proofs of the Hardships they endure. It is not long since one of the Jeluits Scholars came into the Church of the Holy Ghost in Time of divine Service, and uttered horrid Imprecations in the Face of the whole Congregation. His Electoral Highness has not yet disposed of the vacant Post of President of the Ecclesiastical Council 3 and it is rumoured, that the Commissaries who have been employed in examining of Religious Affair, will be laid asside.

in examining of Religious Affair, will be laid afide.

Hambourg, Dec. 17. His Pruffian Majefty arrived here incognito Yefterday Morning as nine a Clock, accompanied by the Generale Lottum, Gerfdorff, Marwitz, Denhoff, and Lingle; and after having vifited feveral Parts of the City, he went to the Houle of the Pruffian Refident, where he lay that Night, and fet out the next Morning early for Altena. The Magistrates paid him no publick Honours, because his Majesty defired it might be so; though he was nevertheless discovered by some Persons who knew him, as he passed through the City. Our Magistrates observing that many reduced Soldiers, lately in the Danish Service, have taken up their Abodes in this City, have ordered, that no more be admitted for the suture, but that they be obliged to repair to the several Countries where they were born; the like Ordes is made with respect to soreign Jews, and idle Persons, great Numbers of which have lately reforted hither.
